- Your location (this depends on where you are from where I am located: if you're close then the charge is minimal or not at all);
- The travel time to get to your location
- The number of lessons to be given in one session, known as a 'block'; for example, if you are a company who wants 6 meetings on the same day, then it may be possible to cut, or even remove the price of travel
- Intensive courses. If, for example, you are an organisation who requires a week's intensive lessons that take up full days, then it is possible that you could receive a discount.
- If you require lessons on a Saturday, then add 20% to the cost of your lessons. If you require lessons on Sundays or public holidays, add 50% to the cost of your lessons.

ENGLISH TEXT PROOFING

For further information as regards the processes that concern my proofing of texts, please refer to my proofing page on my personal website at www.rogerhartopp.co.uk

The price for proofing is 18zl a page. A FINISHED page consists of 1800 characters, including spaces. At least that makes the maths easy: if the completed text, after proofing of course, consists of 4879 characters, then the cost is 49 zloty. Or if it's 4829, it's 48 zloty. Yes, the price is rounded up or down, depending which side of the 50 you are. The minimum price is 30 zloty.

ENGLISH-POLISH TRANSLATIONS

From Polish to English, prices start from 50 zloty a page (including proofing). A page is 1800 characters, including spaces. However, the prices may increase if the text includes technical language, and if there is a lot of technical language then this would be subject to negotiation. The minimum price is 50 zloty.

From English to Polish, prices start from 45 zlotys a page.
